

Joseph F. T. Nese
University of Oregon

Mentor: Gerald Tindal, University of Oregon

Project Title: The Relation Between Instructional Context and Student Responsiveness to Intervention

Awarded amount: $9,704

Bio: Joseph F. T. Nese, is a Research Associate at the University of Oregon. He earned his Ph.D. in school psychology from the University of Maryland in 2009, and his B.A. in psychology from the University of California at Santa Barbara in 2002. He conducts research in educational assessment and applied measurement, focusing on developing and improving systems that support data-based decision-making and using advanced statistical methods to measure and monitor student growth.

